

THREE-IN-ONE STUDY CLUB INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS—

The Three-in-One Study Club held its last meeting of the year on Wednesday, May 11, in the home of Mrs. Henry Dorsey, with Mrs. Harold Dale and Mrs. Walter Jackson as joint hostesses. Pretty larkspur and roses added to the attractiveness of the home.

Mrs. Roberta King, president, called the meeting to order, after which roll was called and minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. Henry Dorsey, chairman of the project committee, gave a report of the work done on the play ground, and a committee was appointed to select a name for it. Miss Gladys Clark, delegate to the national convention in Dothan, gave a very interesting report of the convention.

After other business, the following interesting program on "Women's Outlook" was given:—
Edith Wharton, a Protege of Henry James—Mrs. Harold English.
"Isle of Hope"—Emily Nohie—Mrs. Levy Morrow.
"Crowded City"—Alice Roosevelt Longworth—Mrs. John Kendrick.

Immediately following the program the new officers for the year were installed. Mrs. Walter Whitman, president, appointed the following committees:
Program—Mrs. Jake Morrow, Mrs. Henry Dorsey, Mrs. Bester Bryan.
Library—Mrs. Pete Ellis, Mrs. John Kendrick, Mrs. Robert Childs.
Special Project—Miss Gladys Clark, Mrs. Harold English, Mrs. Levy Morrow.

A delicious salad course with an excellent drink was served to members of the club and the following visitors: Mrs. Cecil Ginnels, Mrs. Johnnie Woodham and Mrs. Cole of Opp.

WINTERSMITH'S Tonic

Any medicine that has been used for generations for generations MUST be good. That's the reason Wintersmith's Tonic—over 70 years of continuous demand—has been used by millions of people in 21 foreign countries. TITV Wintersmith's Tonic is a General Tonic, and for Malaria, then, just for a good year.

Adam was first formed from a red mud, and the first creation of the human race. This teaches definitely the place of authority. But if a real home exists there will be happiness, joy, peace among the human relations. Father takes the position seriously and goes about the task with true love, supporting the family with means and leadership. The wife and mother recognizes her place in making the home go, and in peace and happiness is the "Keeper of the Home." Each stands well together, moulding character, producing citizens for tomorrow.

God grant us more real and God-loving homes!

SCHUMANN MUSIC CLUB HAS LAST MEETING OF YEAR—

The Schumann Music Club had its last meeting of the club year on Wednesday afternoon of last week when Martha Ann Dixon, Elba, entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Dixon.

Bowls of lovely red roses in attractive arrangement adorned the living room where the meeting was held.

As the guests arrived, they were served delicious fruit punch from an attractively appointed table by the hostess.

During the business session plans for the commencement recital were discussed. The theme of the recital will be a fantasy program:—
"Music on the Moon."
Francis Butwell, leader for the meeting, announced the following program:
Life of Richard Wagner—Mrs. Phil Crigler.
Dolly's Funeral (Chalkovsky)—Anna Duquway.
Waves (Ketterer)—Nina English.
La Cinquintaine (Gabriel-Marie)—Eleanor Brunson.
The Stranger (Charles-Marie)—Martha Ann Dixon.
In a "Wagner Quiz" conducted by Mrs. Crigler, perfect scores were made by Martha Ann Dixon, Carolyn English and Nina English.

During the social hour a delightful ice cream was served to the club members and Carolyn English and Dorothy Vickers.

We must increase the population of Alabama's dairy cows by the more general use of purchased bulls. Remember that it is more economical to get four gallons from one high-producing cow than it is to get one gallon from each of four cows. There is also danger of getting kicked!

Farmers of Alabama received $3,150,000 for carrying out soil building practices on their farms under the 1938 AAA program, says A. W. Jones, AAA administrator for Alabama, adding that an additional $1,350,000 was available but was unsecured.

PINE LEVEL NEWS

A shadow of gloom was cast over the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey Sunday night when the death angel came and took away their beautiful daughter, Ruth Wilbur. Interment was made in the Pine Level cemetery Tuesday at ten o'clock. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved.

Mrs. Roberta King are the proud parents of a new girl, which they have named Jane Ann, Mrs. Lillie Carpenter, who has been very ill, is able to be up again.

Mrs. Nina Helms, who has been sick, is improving nicely.

We regret to learn of the illness of Rev. J. A. Mitchell, who was unable to fill his regular appointment Sunday, but services rendered by Rev. Allen of Alexander City were immensely enjoyed.

Douglas guesses the farmers are enjoying this rain so well, as they recall the saying, "Dry May for a good crop year."

A large crowd attended the graduation exercises at Dothan Monday night. The class consisted of twenty-seven fine graduates.

NOTICE—I have any kind of a job you want, and will have any job you want one. I will keep my barn open all the year. See me if you want to work or buy.

WHO IS TO BLAME, PARENTS OR CHILDREN?

Recently in the city of Tampa, Florida, a girl of eighteen years, falling in the automobile with three others, was killed in a collision with another car. At the coroner's inquest the driver of the death car was being held for reckless driving. The father of the girl who died, however, was the one to plead for leniency toward the driver. The father's words addressed to the jury:

"It must strike you strange that I, who have just lost my most cherished possession, should plead for leniency to the one who has unintentionally been the cause of this tragic affair. But, punishing him would not bring back my girl to me. The blame for such tragedies goes further back than on the shoulders of the young people who are involved in so many of them today. We, the parents, are so much involved in our own selfish seeking for pleasure that the young people are left pretty much to themselves. We permit them, at 16 or 18, to drive high-powered motor cars over miles of dark roads at night. Our roads are lined with dance halls and gin joints catering to the young boys and girls. Our movies give them an unnatural, unhealthy conception of life. We give them everything that tends to their detriment and fall to find them honest jobs when they complete college. The blame belongs to a generation of parents, whose carelessness and self-stepped their responsibility. The blame, gentlemen of the jury, is mine, and yours."

Here is a sermon to all parents, a much needed warning in this age of speed and jazz, of road-houses and liquor joints, of lowered standards and liberty run rampant. It is high time for parents to ask themselves seriously the question: "Who is to blame, I or my son or daughter?" Elba, Alabama Christian Advocate.

Mrs. G. C. Vaughn, Route 1, Gadsden, makes poultry pay. She began in December last year on the Golden Cuckoo market and has built up her trade until she sells 50 dressed turkeys over a larger chicken every week. She has five brooder houses of pine slats and lined them with paper boxes, and has already put 3,200 baby chicks in this year.

Farm women of Escambia County have begun to sell eggs on the judge's racks. Here are their qualifications for a good rack: 1. Should harmonize in color, line, and design with room and other furnishings. 2. Should be made of wood, not of tin or of any other material. 3. It should be neat to roll up easily, and add beauty to the room. The women have gone even further and made rugs from knit materials and old stockings according to the above specifications.

Mrs. G. C. Vaughn, Route 1, Gadsden, makes poultry pay. She began in December last year on the Golden Cuckoo market and has built up her trade until she sells 50 dressed turkeys over a larger chicken every week. She has five brooder houses of pine slats and lined them with paper boxes, and has already put 3,200 baby chicks in this year.

Farm women of Escambia County have begun to sell eggs on the judge's racks. Here are their qualifications for a good rack: 1. Should harmonize in color, line, and design with room and other furnishings. 2. Should be made of wood, not of tin or of any other material. 3. It should be neat to roll up easily, and add beauty to the room. The women have gone even further and made rugs from knit materials and old stockings according to the above specifications.

WHO IS TO BLAME, PARENTS OR CHILDREN?

Recently in the city of Tampa, Florida, a girl of eighteen years, falling in the automobile with three others, was killed in a collision with another car. At the coroner's inquest the driver of the death car was being held for reckless driving. The father of the girl who died, however, was the one to plead for leniency toward the driver. The father's words addressed to the jury:

"It must strike you strange that I, who have just lost my most cherished possession, should plead for leniency to the one who has unintentionally been the cause of this tragic affair. But, punishing him would not bring back my girl to me. The blame for such tragedies goes further back than on the shoulders of the young people who are involved in so many of them today. We, the parents, are so much involved in our own selfish seeking for pleasure that the young people are left pretty much to themselves. We permit them, at 16 or 18, to drive high-powered motor cars over miles of dark roads at night. Our roads are lined with dance halls and gin joints catering to the young boys and girls. Our movies give them an unnatural, unhealthy conception of life. We give them everything that tends to their detriment and fall to find them honest jobs when they complete college. The blame belongs to a generation of parents, whose carelessness and self-stepped their responsibility. The blame, gentlemen of the jury, is mine, and yours."

Here is a sermon to all parents, a much needed warning in this age of speed and jazz, of road-houses and liquor joints, of lowered standards and liberty run rampant. It is high time for parents to ask themselves seriously the question: "Who is to blame, I or my son or daughter?" Elba, Alabama Christian Advocate.
